

TROY HERALD.
WEDNESDAY, JULY 2, 1873.

VACATING STREETS.—A petition has been signed by the property holders interested, praying the County Court to vacate the following streets: Locust from the west line of Fourth to the west line of town plat; Collier street from the west line of Fifth street; Fifth, Sixth and Eighth streets from the west line of Cherry street to the north line of town plat; and Seventh street from the north line of College street to the north line of town plat. The reasons assigned by the petitioners are that the said streets are unnecessary and useless, and the working of them is an unreasonable burden upon the tax-payers. This move is in the right direction. We hope that other districts of the town will inaugurate similar measures. We need such action on the part of our citizens to repair the mistakes of arrangement made in the original surveys. The blocks should be larger, the streets wider and more uniform. This is certainly the best time to repair these defects. The necessary changes can be made at much less cost than when the town becomes more compactly built up. Perhaps no other measure on the part of our citizens would so much enhance the value of town property.

NOTICE.—All persons indebted to the estates of James H. Segras and Joshua King, dec'd, on note or account (sale bills excepted) are hereby notified to come forward and pay up, or I will be compelled to sue.
JOSIAH CREECH,
Adm'r said Estates.

HORRIBLE DEATH.—Steph. Hempstead, of Callaway County, a soldier of the war of 1812, and years ago a resident of this county, came to a horrible death last week, by being trampled under foot by an enraged bull. The first intimation had by the family of his death was seeing the infuriated animal tossing the mangled body of the old man in the air, as a boy would a ball. So says the Fulton Telegraph.

READ THIS.—For a pleasant drink of soda, go to the Fountain at the corner store of G. W. Mohr. He has also just received a lot of Ladies and Misses' straw hats, which he will sell at low figures. Gents and boys' felt hats at from 75 to $1.00; boots and shoes, cutlery, fancy groceries and provisions, &c., all at low cash prices. All those indebted to me must come forward and pay; otherwise their accounts and notes will be put out for collection.
G. W. MOHR.

PRICES TUMBLING!—The hard times and the scarcity of money have caused the prices of goods at W. S. Cooper's Novelty Cash Store to tumble down at a rattling rate. Calicoes are selling at from 6 1-4 to 12 1-2 a yard. A large stock of new goods just received and ready for inspection. Call and see his goods and inform yourself of his low prices.

The Improved Champion Reaper and Mower, the best combined reaper and mower in the world, warranted to do good work where all other machines fail. It is the strongest and most durable and the lightest draft machine made. Every machine warranted to give entire satisfaction, or the money paid for it will be refunded. Repairs kept constantly on hand. I refer the farmers of Lincoln county who think of purchasing a reaper this year, to the following gentlemen, bought the Champion of me last year: H. W. Perkins, Patrick Murphy, P. G. Shelton, Mart Rice, Henry Palmer, Tom Trail, Benj. Pilson, Dr. Tice, Harvey Brown, Jas. Anderson.
